

Save the date: New Graduate Networking Event 2017 (#NQOT17)

Stop Learning, Start Learning

When: Thursday 27th July 2017, 10.30-16.00

Where: RCOT Headquarters, London

We are excited to announce that we will be hosting another New Graduate Networking event again this summer! In previous years this event has generated a high volume of interest. It's a day that you do not want to miss if you are a newly qualified occupational therapist.

The programme is shaping up to be more exciting than ever, with workshops and key note speeches to be delivered by RCOT staff and external speakers. The event will equip you with useful knowledge as a newly qualified occupational therapist, provide you with valuable learning to add to your CPD portfolio and help you to expand your professional network by connecting with other newly qualified occupational therapists from across the United Kingdom.

Details:

Lunch will be provided and travel will be reimbursed up to the value of £100 (conditions apply).

This event is for you if:

- You have not attended a previous New Graduate Networking Event hosted by RCOT
- You graduated with a pre-registration degree in occupational therapy within the last two years
- You are a registered RCOT member
