If you're already a member, don't worry about payment – you'll skip this step.

1. Activate your account

- You'll then be sent a verification email
- Click the link in the email and your account will be activated

The link in your verification email is for one time use only. It might take a while to load the page so please be patient. If you close your browser during this time or click the link in the verification email again it won't work. If this happens go back to the 'Login' page and enter your email again.

Create your new website account

Welcome to your new RCOT website! If you haven't yet, you need to set up a new account to enjoy your exclusive new benefits and improved digital services

As this is a new website you need to set up a new account before you can access your improved digital services.

Ready to set up your new account?
It won't take long. A few things that will make it easier for you:

- Activation email: Look in your inbox for your 'Activate your RCOT account' email which will be coming before 30 April 2025.
- No email? No problem: Go to 'Activate your account' and use the same email address you used previously for our website and CPD portfolio. This ensures your account connects with our systems.
- Need help? Visit our how to guide or get in touch with us at hello@rcot.co.uk and we'll sort it.

Log in to your account

Already set up your new account?
Great! Go ahead and log in. If not, activate your account first.

Log in

Or

Activate your account
Set your new RCOT account up using the email address you used previously.

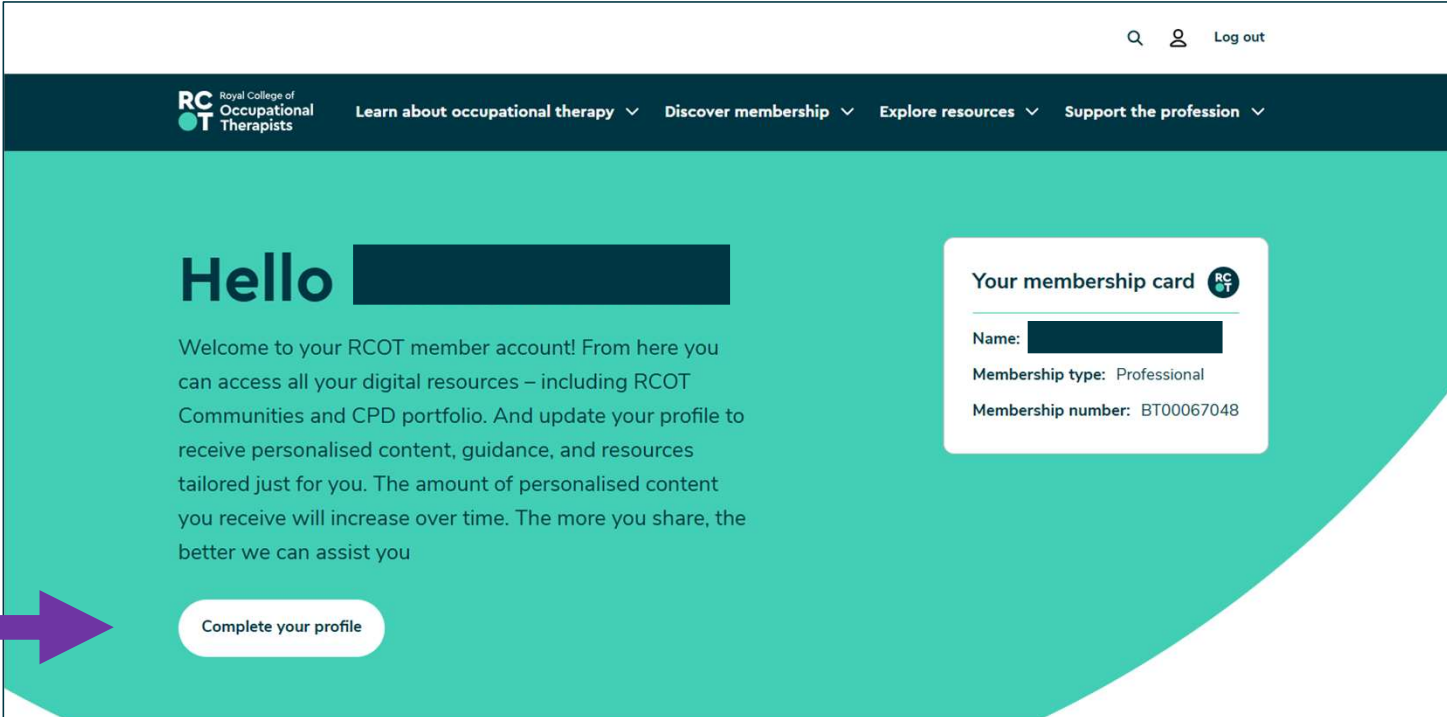

Activate now

This log in option won't work. You need to use the button below.

Click 'Log in'

1. Activate your account

- Your account is now activated
- The next step is to click complete your profile

The screenshot shows the RCOT member account dashboard. At the top right, there is a search icon, a user profile icon, and a 'Log out' link. Below this is a dark teal navigation bar with the RCOT logo and four menu items: 'Learn about occupational therapy', 'Discover membership', 'Explore resources', and 'Support the profession'. The main content area has a teal background. On the left, it says 'Hello [redacted]' followed by a welcome message: 'Welcome to your RCOT member account! From here you can access all your digital resources – including RCOT Communities and CPD portfolio. And update your profile to receive personalised content, guidance, and resources tailored just for you. The amount of personalised content you receive will increase over time. The more you share, the better we can assist you'. On the right, there is a white box titled 'Your membership card' with the RCOT logo, showing 'Name: [redacted]', 'Membership type: Professional', and 'Membership number: BT00067048'. At the bottom center, there is a white button with the text 'Complete your profile', which is highlighted by a purple arrow pointing from the left.

2. Personalise your profile and preferences

You can now amend any details or fill in any gaps:

- your personal details
- your professional/work information
- your demographic information
- If you chose to complete your profile, there are some mandatory fields indicated with an *

Whilst completing your profile is optional, we'll be able to share more personalised content and experiences with you in the future. We'll also understand the occupational therapy workforce and can better advocate on your behalf.

The screenshot shows the 'My profile' page of the RCOT website. The page is divided into several sections: 'My membership: Professional', 'My account details', 'My details', 'My professional information', and 'Demographics'. Each section contains various fields for user information, some of which are marked with an asterisk (*) to indicate they are mandatory. Annotations with purple arrows point to specific fields: 'My membership: Professional', 'My account details', and 'My professional information'. A purple box on the right side of the page contains text explaining how to change contact information or select 'Other' or 'Self employed' for professional information.
