Innovation Seed Fund questions

There are 20 questions in total, the first 12 questions explore your improvement idea and what evidence you're using to inform your solution. The remaining questions help us understand the context your working in. To help you prepare for submitting your ISF application, here are the questions that relate to your improvement idea.

1) The challenge: Briefly explain the evidence showing that this initiative is needed now, and what influenced your decision that it's the right approach

2) Describe your approach or change to address the challenge.

3) Please select the main driver for you change idea. (select from a drop-down menu)

4) Which statement best describes the phase of your change idea or innovation?

    - I'm just getting started
    - I'm piloting the initiative
    - I'm implementation the initiative
    - I've completed and evaluated the initiative
    - I'm adopting and spreading the initiative

5) What types of data demonstrate the need for your initiative? (select from drop-down list)

6) What types of have you/or will you use to evidence the impact of your initiative? (select from a drop-down list)

7) If this is an improvement project, feel free to share your process, outcome and balancing measures with us

8) How much money are you requesting?

9) The aim of this fund is to support a test and learn approach, enabling you to trial a new idea, gather evidence of its impact, and refine your approach before scaling your solution. Can you describe what you're using the funding to test, your anticipated outcomes and plans to sustain and scale the solution?

10) Can you tell us, what is known about the occupational therapy contribution in this area, what evidence gap exists and why this is important? Lastly, how will your project help generate new learning or evidence?

11) What will you purchase or how will you use the funds?

12) Will you need to secure additional funding alongside this fund to deliver your project?